

I have identified at least 5 Categories on the feminine journey!

I dedicated names to these categories based on how we need to navigate the inner journey to understand ourselves better.

All men and women have an inner feminine and when we know where are on this internal process of learning to listen to our feminine voice, we feel more clear on where we are going.

BEGINNER

As a BEGINNER you have already embarked on the feminine journey. It is time to discover where this road goes. And it feels a little bit like Alice in Wonderland because everything seems upside down once we arrive.

HALFLING

As a HALFLING you have been on this road for a while. You probably consider yourself as a spiritual seeker and what most of you don't yet know is that you still have some way to go. Remember that saying that the one eyed leading the blind?

FINISHER

As a FINISHER you probably think it will never end, but it does. It is time to climb out of this rabbit hole. Your journey is coming to an end. Don't get stuck now!

It is easy to forget that there is a whole world out there of people who can learn from your inner wisdom. But first you have to navigate past the traps and find your way out past the danger zones.

CRONE

Once you have discovered your inner voice, it is time to share it with the world. Dig deep into your inner wisdom as you live your life now by intuition and share it with others.
